HOW DOES YOUTH COACHING WORK?

Youth Coaching can take place in 3 stages. How long the advice lasts depends on your questions. Your parents or people who are important to you can also be involved in the advice.

Stage 1 – Initial chat

This is where you get general information. If you need more support, you can this in stage 2 or 3.

Stage 2 – Advice

This stage gives you a little more time to clarify the following questions:

- > Do you want to continue going to school?
- > What job interests you?
- > Is there anything that makes it more difficult for you to learn or work?

Stage 3 – Support

This stage can last up to one year.

- > You can get practical experience in the world of work and
- > you get a report with recommendations for your future.
